COUNT ONE

[18 U.S.C. § 1349]

[ALL DEFENDANTS]

4. The Grand Jury re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-3 of this Indictment here.

A. THE OBJECT OF THE CONSPIRACY

5. Beginning on a date unknown to the Grand Jury, but no later than on or about October 14, 2020, and continuing through at least on or about August 18, 2023, in Los Angeles County and Orange County, within the Central District of California, and elsewhere, defendants CARLOS CORONA, also known as ("aka") "Charlie," aka "Chin," aka "charliehustle323," JOSE LUIS EDEZA JR., aka "tacos088," aka "sstacos088," aka "twoo_tacos088," JOHN WESLEY BESS JR., aka "heemfmbrosa," aka "jefesosafmb," aka "sosa_didit," RICARDO OCHOA JR., aka "Richie," aka "get2amfbag," aka "richieget2it," SAULO SOLARES, aka "danger119," CARLOS LUIZ ARELLANO, aka "Carlos Pelon Arrellano," aka "masi_palon," LUIS ENRIQUE LOPEZ, aka "no_speed_limits1320," SOFIA GENESIS ALVAREZ, aka "pr3tty_sophiia," KAREN VANESSA MARTINEZ, aka "Nessa," aka "_luvvnessa_," VANESSA CORTES ARZATE, aka "Vanessa Cortez," aka "Vane," aka "vanessa_cortez21," and RICARDO WILFREDO NICHOLSON, aka "veegoinstant," aka "freemoneybidnez," aka "flyfreshvideos," aka "freshinthenev_," together with others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, conspired to commit bank fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1344(1).

B. THE MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

6. The object of the conspiracy was to be carried out, and was carried out, in substance, as follows:

1 a. Defendant SOLARES, Co-Conspirator 1, and other co-
2 conspirators, would steal checks from the U.S. mail stream, including 3 mailboxes and post office mail collection boxes located outside of 4 United States Post Office locations.

5 b. Defendants CORONA, EDEZA, BESS, and OCHOA, and other
6 co-conspirators, would take possession of the checks that defendant
7 SOLARES, Co-Conspirator 1, and other co-conspirators stole.

8 c. Defendants CORONA, EDEZA, BESS, OCHOA, ARELLANO,
9 LOPEZ, ALVAREZ, MARTINEZ, CORTES ARZATE, and NICHOLSON, and other co-
10 conspirators, would solicit bank account holders through social media 11 to provide their debit cards and bank account information to the co-
12 conspirators, promising these account holders a cut of any fraudulent 13 funds deposited into their accounts in return. To circumvent the 14 fraud protections of the Financial Institutions, the co-conspirators 15 would specifically request bank accounts that had been open for a 16 certain amount of time so the co-conspirators could get access to the 17 stolen funds more quickly.

18 d. Bank account holders would respond to the 19 advertisements via social media and provide defendants CORONA, EDEZA, 20 BESS, OCHOA, ARELLANO, LOPEZ, ALVAREZ, MARTINEZ, CORTES ARZATE, and 21 NICHOLSON, and other co-conspirators, with the information requested
22 on the advertisements, including bank account numbers, PIN numbers, 23 and online banking log-in information, among other personal
24 information. The co-conspirators would also take physical possession 25 of the account holders' debit cards.

26 e. Defendants CORONA, EDEZA, BESS, OCHOA, ARELLANO,
27 LOPEZ, ALVAREZ, MARTINEZ, CORTES ARZATE, and NICHOLSON, and other co-
28 conspirators, would exchange the bank account information obtained

1 from bank account holders and debit cards with each other and other 2 co-conspirators.

3 f. Defendants CORONA, EDEZA, BESS, and OCHOA, and other
4 co-conspirators, would deposit the stolen checks into the bank
5 accounts that had been sourced as described in sub-paragraphs 6.d & 6 6.e. In most cases, the stolen checks were falsely endorsed in the 7 original payee's name. In doing so, the co-conspirators falsely 8 represented that they were the payees on the checks and were entitled 9 to the funds and concealed that they were not the payees on the 10 stolen checks and that they were not authorized to deposit the checks
11 or receive the payees' funds. In some cases, the checks were washed 12 or altered to make the payee the name of the owner of the bank
13 account into which the checks were being deposited.

14 g. Defendants CORONA, EDEZA, BESS, and OCHOA, and other 15 co-conspirators, would then rapidly deplete the fraudulently
16 deposited funds from the account holders' accounts by making cash
17 withdrawals, electronic transfers, and/or debit card purchases.

18 h. To conceal the fraud, the co-conspirators would 19 instruct account holders to claim that their accounts had been 20 compromised if contacted by the Financial Institutions about the 21 fraudulent deposits.

22 7. During their fraudulent scheme, defendants intended to 23 cause at least $5.5 million in losses to the Financial Institutions.

24 C. OVERT ACTS

26 conspiracy and to accomplish its object, defendants CORONA, EDEZA,
